LAW & ORDERS.

THE MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, 155 & 156, BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

POINTS FOR AN INSURER TO CONSIDER.

AN ORDINARY LIFE INSURANCE Policy provides an estate for your dependents after your death, free from the claims of creditors.

AN ORDINARY ENDOWMENT POLICY provides for a sum, and for one's advancing years, but at a much smaller outlay.

THE MANHATTAN'S NEW PLAN offers both advantages combined in one, and at a much reduced cost.

This new policy is superior to ordinary Life Insurance, because you need not "die to win."

Superior to ordinary endowment insurance, because much less expensive.

Superior to "Term" Insurance.

1st.—Because the results are not GUARANTEED, but are fixed in a positive contract.

2nd.—Because, after three years, there is no FORFEITURE or PAYMENTS on discontinuance of the policy, a sum or paid-up value being guaranteed by the New York Law.

Business men appreciate the advantages of this new form of insurance, and are largely turning to it, because—

• The amount invested is practically SAVED, while it secures the needed insurance during a designated period.

POSITIVE RESULTS.

Of a Policy in the MANHATTAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

AGE, 30; AMOUNT OF POLICY, $10,000.

THE Annual Premium will be, $3,200.

The 20 payments will amount to, $30,000.

At the end of that time the company will return to the holder in cash, $35,700.00.

Thus the $10,000 Insurance will have been increased at the net cost for $3,200.00.

20 years of $3,200.00 interest, or $1,600.00 interest, plus $3,200.00.

Or if the Cash be not drawn the Policy will become paid up for, $10,000.00.

These results are not estimated, but are fixed in a Positive Contract, the full face of the Policy meanwhile being paid in the event of the death of the assured. There is no forfeiture of payments on discontinuance of the policy after the third year.

Cash or Paid-up Value guaranteed by the Terms of the New York Law.

For example, at other ages, and also on the 10 and 15 years plan, write or apply at the Office.

NOTICE.

THE CHINA SUGAR REFINING COMPANY, LIMITED.

the services of the choristers from the seminary at Chusan.

This morning the remains of the late Bishop Gouy were removed from the Mortuary Chapel to the church of the Immaculate Conception, built by himself in 1872. The funeral cortege that accompanied the remains of the late Bishop Gouy, the church formed quite a long line of followers, the procession being led by 50 picked men of the An-De-Chinse contingent bearing reverend arms, followed by incense burners and converts connected with the mission bearing banners and flags, etc., the choristers forming quite a large body. The procession preceded the arrival of the ecclesiastic, etc., etc.

The Bishop had no doubt acted as his predecessor would have done in taking an interest in the proceedings, he having been represented on this occasion by several officers who brought up the rear of the procession.

SHANGHAI.

The French Consul, Hervé, with Admiral Gravier, were received in Shanghai on the morning of the 15th instant. The Consul, who stands that the Admiral is about to make an imposing demonstration with his fleet at Chusan.

His Excellency M. Potémont, the French Minister to China, arrived here on the 1st instant, Pro Ecclesiastico.

He was received by the French Consul-General M. Lomire, and several other prominent residents.

A guard of honour was posted for the immediate withdrawal of Chinese troops from Tonquin. It is noteworthy that this attack by the Chinese on the French at Langson occurred on the very day when Li Chung-hang and other high Chinese authorities were being so splendidly entertained by Admiral Gouy at this place. Such is the irony of circumstances.

You may remember that Chung-fu-han was said to have pleaded indigitation as an excuse for not joining in the visit to the French Admiral.

Chung was not sick. He absolutely declined seeing the French authorities.

H. J. M., a corvette Albatross arrived here on the 1st instant, with the new Austrian Minister, Count von Ketteler, and the English Ambassador, Sir Edward Elliot.

The Undersigned, having the command of the Transatlantic Fire Insurance Company of Hamburg.

The Undersigned, having been appointed Agents for the above Company, are prepared to ACCEPT RISKS against FIRE at Current Rates.

Hongkong, 16th January, 1882.

COCHIN-CHINA.

311. O. V.

The Singapore records that, in consequence of the rains and the bad state of the roads, General Negril's advance towards Langson had been countermanded and his column was expected to return to Hanoi on the 5th instant.

Bandos have been circulating at Saigon as to the two tigers made their appearance there a few days ago, and carried off three children. They came from the mountain range behind Kukking, and were seen close to the land of the foreign settlement. A number of foreigners went out to investigate, and traced the footprints for a great distance, but did not succeed in spotting the game.

NEWQUAY.

1st July.

The German three-masted schooner Friedrich, which left Newquay on the 24th, will be re-embarked, was the former incumbent of this relationship, having been succeeded two years ago by the present one, Li.

On the 27th, June, some half-dozen two-masted Chinese junks in an alloy way of the Malacca and mainly equipped with the old Mixed Court came down with a run.

As the houses were known to be unsafe, the occupants had been warned to leave a short time previously.

Consequently the buildings were empty, and no one received any injuries. A Chinese comprador, in foreign employ is the owner of the property.

He had been sent from the N. C. Daily News that the Tung-hua was the Tung-hua ship.

—Owing to the Tung-hua having been run into recently by a steamer employed on the Shanghai-Canton line, the Kuang-hua with Captain Barton and Mr. Warburg, survivors, on board, left for the lightship on the 10th instant, ascertain what injuries she had received and what was to be done for her to be referred to Shanghai to be loaded.

The new Vice-Admiral of Canton and the new Minister for France, accompanied by the Tocat, visited the Arsenal on the 29th June; the former arrived there at 10 a.m., and the latter shortly after noon. After partaking of refreshments, they made a minute inspection of every department.

They then visited the small-arm department, there being no arsenals, and the gunpowder shall factory, and finally the shipyards.

We hear that they expressed themselves as highly satisfied with "everything they saw." All the Arsenal officials, both native and foreign, accompanied them through the Arsenal.

The Shen-pao says that the other day Wei, the Lieutenant-Governor of Kiangnan, sent post to the different commanders of the Naval Brigades, stating that the naval force, and the coast of Kiangnan and the water of the Yangtze, were to be used and were to be rendered at Chefoo and at Li-kuang-ku, a place at the extremity of the Lung-tung Province.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PEKING, 5th July.

The strange telegram which reached you from this place on 25th June about France repudiating the Treaty of 11th May is now quite intelligible.

The French had no desire to dislodge the Lang-hua, and the consequences going to demand heavy satisfaction for its outrage.

The Chinese, however, had repudiated it.

The telegraph wires here are all cut.

The brigades were all ordered to be drilled daily and to exercise extra diligence in preventing a surprise.

In obedience to these commands, the naval brigades in question were, at 4th inst., put into full alert at all the points indicated.

THE Daily News Correspondent

BY TELEGRAPH.

PEKING, 5th July.

The abundant rumours are in circulation here about the number of French.

It is said that an indefinite number of French troops are rendezvousing at Chefoo and at Li-kuang-ku, a place at the extremity of the Lung-tung Province.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PEKING, 5th July.

An Imperial Decree has been issued with regard to the recommendation by Chang-shih-ku, late Vice-Viceroy of Kung-ting, of a person to be appointed to the Yung-ching Civil Office. This Board decided that the ex-Viceroy should be degraded. As an act of special grace, however, the ex-Viceroy will be permitted to retain his present office, though losing his official rank, and it is hoped that by his story in defending the former Chang-shih-ku will prove himself worthy of the Imperial leniency.

General Wu Tching recently announced that he was worth £10,000. The only one known to be Li Fing-ku, English interpreter to His Excellency the Vice-Viceroy of Kung-ting. When Li Fing-ku has completed the special business he has now in hand, he is to go to Peking for audience of the Emperor.

Li Fing-ku was one of the intercessors in attendance on Li Chung-tang during his sojourn in Shanghai. He is well known and much liked by foreigners.—Daily News.

KOREA.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PEKING, 5th July.

We understand that the German Consul for Champho (Koro), Mr. Butler, arrived at his post on the 23rd June, past steamer Nursing, to the great delight of his nationals at that port.

The Imperial treaty was concluded at Peking.

The German Consul, and the Chinese Consul, and their wives, were chartered by the purchasers of the Wu-ki and Wu-ki on her last trip, succeeded in taking out of the Wu-ki two boxes of wine, a wineglass, and a few other things; one of these junks was not of Gatchina bound.

The Corridor translates from the Shen-pao the official report of the Wu-ki to the Board of Revenue with reference to the failure of Hu Kung Yung, the well known Hangchow banker and silk merchant. It states that Hu Kung Yung's official difficulties alone amount to over one million dollars, namely, Peking Treasury of the Salt Revenue Office of Chekiang Tls. 50,000; voluntary subscription for the Chekiang Tsin Tung (Hangchow River Fund) Tls. 30,000; imperial treasury of the "Lien" region Tls. 120,000; one loaned on the Grand Secretary Tls. 100,000; the official deposit of the Tocat of Ningpo Tls. 110,000; the official deposit of the Salt Revenue Office of Chekiang Tls. 100,000; official deposits of the several Tao-tais of the Province of Fukien Tls. 230,000; Public Treasury of the Liang Kung, i.e., Kiang-su, Kiang-si, and Anhwei Tls. 250,000; Official deposit of the Foochow Mint Tocat Tls. 20,000; Official deposit of a sum Tls. 20,000; Official deposit of the Shanghai Mint Tls. 200,000; Against these amounts, which were deposited in the several banks owned by Hu Kung Yung at the time of his failure, he sets off twenty-six pawn shops and one clothing store which are his only assets, namely, four pawn shops in the city of Hangchow and one pawn shop in the district of Hsiang; one pawn shop in the city of Hsiau-ki, one pawn shop in the city of Kien-ching, and lastly one clothing store in the city of Hangchow.

PEKING, 5th July.

Some time ago it was reported that the local Government—comprising the Dock, Slip, and Engineering Works—which have hitherto been under control of the Government Public Works Department were about to be transferred to the Imperial Navy Department; but as at the time of the late Mr. E. C. Kirby's death, in December last, he had made a large arrangement, it was understood, that it was not to be carried out. The contemplated arrangement collapsed in favour of the purchase of the Kobo Iron Works, which was taken over in the only part of the present year, by the Navy authorities. Since then, nothing has been publicly known of any contemplated change in the proprietorship of the Dockyard, until the arrival of Mr. G. H. C. Kirby, English Consul, and his wife, who have concluded a new arrangement to secure the whole concern, and that they were going to take immediate possession. This report was fully borne out by the arrival, in the Toku Maru, on the 30th ult., of Mr. Iwakoshi Yano-ki, one of the managing proprietors of the Company, accompanied by a staff of employees, including Messrs. Calder, Davison, and Roberts, who arrived on Saturday last, it is understood, to take up their abode. Mr. G. H. C.
